

Possible Rationales for Curriculum Reform
Development of healthy, responsible and skilled citizens	Respect for cultural diversity
Social and economic development and improvement of living standards	Economic liberalization
International competitiveness and global integration	Political transition
Social stability and national cohesion	Post-conflict reconciliation and social & civic reconstruction