

MANUAL FOR INTEGRATING HIV and AIDS EDUCATION IN SCHOOL CURRICULA

3rd version, December 2006

International bureau of education – UNESCO

Table of content

Foreword

General introduction

Ten tools

- Tool 1 : Raising awareness and advocating for HIV and AIDS education in schools
- Tool 2 : Assessment of the current situation regarding the integration of HIV and AIDS education into the official curriculum
- Tool 3 : Context analysis: resources, obstacles and opportunities
- Tool 4 : Issues regarding integration of HIV and AIDS education into the official curriculum
- Tool 5 : Learning objectives, essential thematic areas, allocation of time, with an example of cross-curricular approach
- Tool 6 : Pedagogical approaches and teaching methods
- Tool 7 : Assessment of learning outcomes
- Tool 8 : Implications for teacher training and support
- Tool 9 : HIV and AIDS education and management of schools (work in progress)
- Tool 10 : Appraisal criteria for HIV & AIDS and SRH teaching and learning materials
 - A. Material for learners
 - B. Material for teachers
 - C. Material for teacher training

Bibliography

Appendices

NB: this manual is available in English, French, Russian and Arabic

www.ibe.unesco.org/hivaids, ibeaid@ibe.unesco.org

Additional resources

- Appraisal of existing material providing examples of good practice
Available on IBE's website: www.ibe.unesco.org/hivaids
- Databank as a resource bank of existing HIV & AIDS curriculum material
Available on IBE's website: www.ibe.unesco.org/hivaids and on CD-ROM