OVERVIEW OF THE FUNCTIONS

The incumbent, under the overall authority of Mr Renato Opertti, will carry out the following tasks:
- Assist in research as well as broad consultations with stakeholders on the development of competencies for youth in the early 21st century at the inter-regional, regional and national levels with a focus on youth culture issues.
- Assist in the review process of curricula guidelines and prototypes for the development of competencies for youth in the early 21st century.
- Assist in research on approaches and methodologies for the development of competencies for youth in the early 21st century and in integrating youth education issues in the curricula and the syllabi.
- Assist in editing, formatting and disseminating youth education products and activities in various formats and through multiple channels.
- Assist in any other activity relating to IBE focus area critical and current issues in curriculum (Laboratory of Ideas function of IBE).

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

EDUCATION Degree in Education

SKILLS/COMPETENCIES
- Knowledge of specific subject areas: Youth Education; Education/curriculum.
- Good mastery of Microsoft Office programme (Word, Excel, Power Point, Outlook)
- Experience in online community management would be an asset.
- Capacity to work effectively in teams and in a multicultural working environment.

LANGUAGES
- Fluency Spanish. excellent knowledge English, good working knowledge of another UN language

BENEFITS AND ENTITLEMENTS

Please note that this internship is unpaid. The intern is responsible for all expenses related to the internship, including lodging, meals and transportation to and from Geneva. The intern must be self-insured through a medical provider.

HOW TO APPLY

To apply, please send a letter of application and your CV in UNESCO’s preferred format in English, quoting reference number: 2015-2 Youtheducation-RO, to: International Bureau of Education (IBE), Administrative Unit, C.P. 199, 1211 Genève 20 / Fax : +(41) 22 917.78.01 / or by email to administration@ibe.unesco.org

Application files should reach the IBE before midnight (Geneva time) on 10th of April 2015.

Only candidates selected for interview will be contacted.