History:

The museum was established in 1892 as an effort of Czech teachers to preserve and document traditions of Czech education and pedagogy. It is one of the oldest museums in the Czech Republic. Since 1991 it has belonged to the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports of the Czech Republic. The museum is focused on the history of Czech education, pedagogy and teachers, further to the life, work and legacy of J. A. Comenius.

Principal activities of the museum:

- Creating and enriching collections, care of collections and their deposition
- Scientific and research activities
- Organising lectures, presentations and conferences, co-operation with media
- Exposition and publication activities
- Educational projects and long-term programmes as a part of further and whole-life education for both experienced experts and the general public from the Czech Republic and abroad
- Co-operation with similar foreign institutions
