

Certificate of Advanced Studies in International and Comparative Education

From April to December 2011
Blended format | 60% distance learning environment

September 2011
Residential course at University of Geneva

UNIVERSITÉ
DE GENÈVE

Objectives

- To gain the skills and knowledge necessary to work successfully within the complex economic, political, cultural and social contexts that influence education and learning in diverse parts of the world.
- To understand and analyze the global trends and issues of diverse approaches to educational policies and practices
- To assess and evaluate educational practices, policies and initiatives taken in a wide variety of social and educational settings
- To build a strong preparation for careers in international, national and community bases organizations and settings

Programme

18 ECTS credits

- 2 semesters, 7 modules: e-learning courses providing a deep understanding and competencies in the field of comparative and international education, an analysis of actions and methods of international cooperation
- A summer residential seminar in collaboration with UNESCO and other international organizations

Audience

- Educational specialists working in international and intergovernmental organizations
- Staff ministries of education and governmental aid agencies
- Professional involved in educational projects
- NGO employees active in developing countries
- Faculty teaching international or comparative education and educational researchers

Registration Fee

CHF 8'000.-

Information

Prof. Abdeljalil AKKARI | T. +41 (0)79 649 51 25 | abdeljalil.akkari@unige.ch

www.unige.ch/formcont/internationaleducation